Hanp uv Erin Tavern, Noo York, April 26, 1880,

I am more and more impressed, ex time lies on, with the greatness and patriotism ny Sam. J. Tilden, the Great Defrauder His entire devoshun to his common kentry, his utter simplissity uv caracter, the gilelisnis uv a naterally simple nacher wich contact with the world has never co ruptid, and his general child-like trust in he jestis of his fellow-men, all combine t make him a man which to see is to love and which to be in confidenshal relashuns with, in a monetary way, is to be sup ported.

the Harp uv Erin Tavern, hard by Gramthe Harp uv Erin Tavern, hard by Gram-mercy Park, arrangin Kentucky for the sage of Noo York. It is needlis to add that I don't pay my own board. In the inter-est uv his common kentry the good Mr. Tilden has the bill sent to hisself, for he recognizes the fact that the laberer for his common kentry is entitled to his dally bred, and a liberal allowance for likker and the other necessities uv life. The good Mr. Tilden has ten or a dozen patri-ots uv my kind at the same place, and life ts uv my kind at the same place, and life ith us is not altogether gloomy. We all with us is not altogether gloomy. We all sleep in one room, but there are three meals a day, and unlimited credit at the bar. A man wich can't live on that is a Sybarite which hes no place in a virchus Danabition.

Sybarite which hes no place in a vircuus Republick.

I concluded Kentucky yisterday, and start for home to-morrow. I hed two hours' tawk with Mr. Tilden, the good Mr. Tilden, and we fixed the hull matter.

"I don't want to be President," said the gilelis old man, "but the good of our common kentry demands it. A man wich won't make sacrifices for his kentry should be compelled to live under a corrupt aristocracy. How is Kernel Plunger, of Covington?"

"The Kernel is for Thurman," sed I.

"Tell the Kernel if that deestrick goes for me he shel hev the postoffis at Covington, and that mortgage on to his house will be attended to. No patriot wich wants to be President will pay him more than I will, which is drawed out of retiracy reluctantly, and solely for the good of a common kentry."

I teplied that I thot that wood fix the Kurnel. Referring to a memorandum book marked Kentucky, he went on:

"Gineral Podger, uv Lexinton, hez bin sayin sumthin for Bayard. It won't do. El my sufferio kentry elex me to the Presidency, which I consent to solely on its account, and against my will, he shel hev the postoffis there, and sich money ez he expends in carryin the deestrik furnisht him, and his bills shel not be looked into very closely. In savin one's kentry a partiot must be liberal. Wat is paltry dross compared with the good uv one's kentry? And Major M Grath?"

I replied that the Major wuz not altotogether satisfied with givin the sage uv Noo York the nominashen, but that. I wuz satisfied he wuz watin to be seen.

"See him. Find out eggsackly how much he wants, and promise him anything in the way uv offises that he requires. In the great work uv savin one's common kentry, promises can't be too freely made. Offer him the postoffis there."

Honor From Europe.—It is conceded on all sides that Dr. Ayer's Pills are above comparison with other medicines. Uniting the best elements known to the chemist, they are particularly effective against the numerous stomachic disorders against the numerous stomachic disorders for which they are recommended as a cure. These pills are so mild, yet searching, that they are often prescribed by doctors who otherwise do not favor patent medicines. Indeed, with the fruits of Dr. Ayer's genius in the shape of Pills, Sarsaparilla, Ague Cure and Cherry Pectoral, one might with impunity travel through the swamps of tropical America, or follow Stanley on his travels through the interior of Africa.—Amsterdam Nieuws van den Dag. daw
